By Danny F. Quest

Decades worth of Bilderberg Group Documents Have Been Leaked Online.

Yes you are reading this correctly, on Jun 12, 2016, near the conclusion of this years infamous Bilderberg meeting, and just a few days prior to the Orlando Mass Shooting Event, a vast collection of photo-copied documents, obtained from a variety of sources all related to the Bilderberg Group were gathered from academic institutions all around the world, then they were consolidated and uploaded to the academic archive site publicintelligence.net.

A few years ago the BBC uncovered incredible archived Bilderberg documents which confirmed that both the EU and the Euro were the brainchild of Bilderberg. These documents and others are part of the massive information leak. European media pressured Bilderberg into coughing up the documents after it had refused to provide them in the United States. These documents confirmed earlier American Free Press reports that the Bilderberg Group was indeed behind the formation of the European Union. Bilderberg has, at one time or another, had representatives of all major U.S. newspapers and mainstream network news outlets attend. They are allowed to do so on their promise to report nothing. By maintaining strict Chatham house rules, Bilderberg is able to maintain it's news blackout especially in the United States. The group erroneously expected to be able to keep all it's secrets under wraps because of course all the major United States media companies have collaborated in the blackout. However this year in Europe, Bilderberg had to confront a lot of major media coverage, thanks in a large part to Journalist like Luke Rudkowski, Tony Gosling, and Charlie Skelton

The following documents were obtained from a variety of sources who contributed copies of documents related to the Bilderberg Group from academic institutions. Documents contributed to the collection are sometimes photocopied and in other cases photographed page by page during visits to academic institutions, diplomatic libraries and legal archives including the Presidential Library of Dwight D. Eisenhower, the Harvard Law Library, the National Archive and the archive of former State Department official and member of the Bilderberg Steering Committee Robert Murphy held at the Hoover Institution at Stanford University.

DAY TWO of a dossier on the quiet men who control our destiny

NEWS INQUIRY

THE Daily Mirror yesterday revealed the power of the Trilateral Commission as a group of global manipulators. The Trilateral Commission—known as the Kingmakers—stands second to none in power, prestige and influence. But not far behind comes the Bilderberg Group, a circle of the elite and wealthy whose hush-hush meetings determine how the Western nations should run their affairs.

EVERY year 120 of the world's most powerful and influential men come together, lock themselves away for three days and decide what policies the democratic nations of the West should follow.

They are members of the Bilderberg Group and their meetings are always kept a closely guarded secret.

But I can reveal that this year they will meet in the spa city of Aachen, just 43 miles from the German capital, Bonn, from April 18-20 inclusive.

I can also reveal that former German President Walter Scheel has been invited to replace the ageing Lord Home as chairman of Bilderberg. Scheel has accepted.

Top of the Aachen agenda will be world politics and economics following the Russian invasion of Afghanistan.

Bilderbergers represent the elite and wealthy establishment of every Western nation. They include bankers, politicians, diplomats and leaders of the giant multi-national corporations.

Among British politicians who have attended their meetings are Edward Heath, Harold Wilson, James Callaghan, Denis Healey, Margaret Thatcher and Enoch Powell.

Other influential members of the British Establishment include Lord Roff, of merchant bankers S. G. Warburg; Sir Reay Gosden, chairman of Dunlop; John Harvey-Jones of ICI; and Sir David Steel, chairman of British Pet-
