This latest construct of alternate reality is a great example because it shows how easy it is to dispatch the credibility of often mentioned Real Clear Politics (RCP) "polling averages".

Beginning with Real Clear Politics selling the narrative:

Wow-- Clinton has taken the lead in ARIZONA,
per RCP's polling average

Now look at how the Arizona Republic release today manipulates the RCP:

Polling Data
Poll	Date	Sample	MoE	Clinton (D)	Trump (R)	Johnson (L)	Stein (G)	Spread
RCP Average	8/27 - 10/15	--	--	41.4	41.2	8.2	2.0	Clinton +0.2
Arizona Republic	10/10 - 10/15	LV	4.0	43	38	7	4	Clinton +5
Emerson	10/2 - 10/4	600 LV	3.9	44	42	9	1	Clinton +2
OH Predictive Insights	9/28 - 9/30	718 LV	3.7	42	42	5	1	Tie
NBC/WSJ/Marist	9/6 - 9/8	649 LV	3.8	38	40	12	3	Trump +2
Gravis	8/27 - 8/27	1244 LV	2.8	40	44	8	1	Trump +4
OH Predictive Insights	8/25 - 8/27	728 LV	3.6	40	39	7	1	Clinton +1
Arizona Republic	8/17 - 8/31	704 LV	3.3	35	34	7	2	Clinton +1
CNN/ORC	8/18 - 8/23	809 LV	3.5	38	45	12	4	Trump +7
CBS News/YouGov	8/2 - 8/5	1095 LV	4.8	42	44	5	2	Trump +2

And check out what The Arizona Republic had to do in order to get their Hillary Clinton narrative in the headlines:

Presidential race

Table 1: Answers to 'Who are you planning to vote for' by 'Likely Voters'

	Republican Nominee, Donald Trump	Democratic Nominee, Hillary Clinton	Libertarian Nominee, Gary Johnson	Green Party Nominee, Jill Stein	Haven't decided
Likely Voters (N = 713)	33.9 (± 3.8)	39.0 (± 4.3)	5.9 (± 1.6)	0.5 (± 0.4)	20.7 (± 4.2)

Notes: 95 percent margin of error below estimates in parentheses. Answers based on 713 interviews of self-identified likely voters. Results weighted by registered voters according to party, gender, age, and county. Weights adjusted for nonresponse and likelihood to vote.

Good Grief - 713 Voters With a D+34 Sample Used

Table 2: Answers to 'Who are you planning to vote for' by 'Party registration from sample'

	Republican Nominee, Donald Trump	Democratic Nominee, Hillary Clinton	Libertarian Nominee, Gary Johnson	Green Party Nominee, Jill Stein	Haven't decided
24% Republican (N = 168)	60.0 (± 7.5)	15.2 (± 6.6)	5.3 (± 4.2)	0.3 (± 0.4)	19.3 (± 7.5)
58% Democrat (N = 413)	11.5 (± 3.3)	70.9 (± 4.5)	2.2 (± 1.5)	1.0 (± 0.8)	14.4 (± 3.5)
19% Independent/Other (N = 132)	27.9 (± 7.2)	35.8 (± 9.0)	9.3 (± 2.0)	0.4 (± 0.8)	26.6 (± 8.6)

Yes, that's correct. As unbelievable as it might sound, they used a D+34 Sample.

- Republicans represented 24% of those polled.
- Democrats represented 58% of those polled.
- Independents represented 19% of those polled.

In order to get the poll to show Hillary Clinton with a 5 point lead, they needed to survey more than twice as many Democrats as Republicans. (Poll Data Here) This is so far over-the-top, it goes to show how far the media are willing to go in their efforts to retain the ruse.

That's also how one media outlet can intentionally facilitate the entire MSM narrative.

The Arizona Republic is part of the USA Today (Gannett Company). The media entity has donated heavily to Hillary Clinton's campaign, and endorsed her.
